COACHING BIOGRAPHY

---

Dr. Jonathan M. Gregoire is an ICF-certified creative coach and award-winning concert organist who helps high-performing artists, educators, and professionals overcome burnout, clarify their vision, and build systems for sustainable creative success. His clients range from thriving business owners and performing artists to university faculty and emerging creatives seeking momentum, clarity, or transformation in their work.

Known as the Creative Igniter, Jonathan supports clients through his signature Creative Fire Framework, guiding them to spark vision, stoke sustainable structure, and secure creative alignment for long-term success. His approach was shaped by his own decision to step back and intentionally rebuild a creative life aligned with his deeper artistic calling, even after achieving outward success and stability. That pivotal transition made him “client zero,” and it’s what gives his coaching its clarity, depth, and empathy.

He blends deep listening with practical strategy, drawing on certification in NLP, hypnotherapy, Reiki, somatic coaching, and a Core Certificate in Arts Management from the University of Massachusetts Amherst, alongside academic credentials including a Doctor of Musical Arts and Artist Diploma. Whether helping clients grow their business, reimagine their artistic life, or develop new systems, Jonathan brings both heart and strategy to help them take confident, aligned steps forward.
